Dear Ted:

Here is your picture for [redacted] The boss said he preferred to use the more formal [redacted] rather than the familiar [redacted] At the time he signed the [redacted] photograph he asked if I thought you might wish one too. Obviously, I told him yes because here it is.

Sorry I did not get to see more of you during your recent visit to Washington. Hope we can have more time when you are next here.

With kind personal regards to you and your family.

Sincerely,

30 MAR 1960
